

Weak Women

frequently suffer great pain and misery during the change of life. It is at this time that the beneficial effect of taking Cardui is most appreciated, by those who find that it relieves their distress.

TAKE CARDUI

It Will Help You

Mrs. Lucinda C. Hill, of Freeland, O., writes: "Before I began to take Cardui, I suffered so badly I was afraid to lie down at night. After I began to take it I felt better in a week. Now my pains have gone. I can sleep like a girl of 16 and the change of life has nearly left me." Try Cardui.

Alexandria Gazette.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, NOV. 11, 1908

SENATOR DANIEL INTERVIEWED
United States Senator Daniel of Virginia while in Norfolk yesterday afternoon, to attend the marriage of his son, gave on an interview, in which he declared that the people of the South rejoice in the decision of the United States Circuit Court in upholding Virginia's new constitution requiring an educational qualification for enfranchisement in the United States Supreme Court in sustaining the law giving the States the right to separate the races in the schools and in the letter of President Roosevelt to W. R. Meredith, of Richmond, in which, in clear and positive terms, he puts an end to all interference in southern representation in Congress.

Speaking of the president's letter, the Senator said:

"It does credit to the head and heart of the president, and may be regarded as the official announcement of the close of the era that began with the first gun of the Confederate war. These things, summed up, give assurance not only of peace, but good will towards the South and bespeak a deep and permanent change of sentiment which it united between the sections."

TO TREAT LOVE AS DISEASE.

In a recent lecture before the Chicago College of Medicine, Dr. A. R. Eagle explained a cure for "love sickness."

"A doctor can prepare himself to treat love sickness through mental influence just as more serious ills are treated by it," he said. "One suggestion is to find a new love. This occasionally cures an old love complaint."

He commended the theory of Bishop Fallows, of mind and medicine working in harmony.

BIG PHOSPHATE DEAL.

Probably the largest deal in the phosphate industry of America was closed at Columbia, Tenn., yesterday, by the organization of the Franco-American Consolidated Phosphate Company, with a capital of $7,500,000, and the purchase by the company of 16,357 acres of phosphate lands in Maury, Hickman and Perry counties. The company has been chartered under the laws of Arizona, but the charter will be filed in France, in Baltimore and in Nashville.

MONUMENT UNVEILED.

The monument to the memory of the soldiers of Gen. Humphries' command who fell in the battle of Fredericksburg was unveiled in Fredericksburg today, and present at the ceremonies were Gov. Stuart, of Pennsylvania; Gov. Swanson, of Virginia, and a large number of Union and Confederate veterans. Judge John T. Goodrich, of the Corporation Court, made the address of welcome, while the oration of the day was delivered by Gov. Stuart. The monument stands in the National Cemetery.

ROOSEVELT AND CARMACK.

The Knoxville Sentinel of yesterday said: "According to information in possession of the Sentinel, the animosity between Senator Carmack and Duncan B. Cooper dates back to the time when Mr. Carmack was a United States senator. At that time he severely criticized President Roosevelt and when his term was about to expire, Roosevelt was active in starting an opposition to him. Among those whom he called into consultation was Alfred Henry Lewis, the writer. Lewis arranged an interview between the president and Mr. Cooper. Another prominent Tennessean was present, and the president entertained the visitors at luncheon. The president said he was anxious to beat Carmack. From this time Duncan B. Cooper actively opposed Mr. Carmack. The feeling has been intensified of late years."
